

INTRODUCTION

State law changes in Oregon impact many provisions in the ordinance codes of Oregon cities. This pamphlet is intended to assist city attorneys in the identification of provisions in ordinance codes that may require revision in light of state law. The information in this pamphlet is based upon the experience of the legal staff of Municipal Code Corporation in working with the ordinance codes of Oregon municipal codes.

This pamphlet is current through the 2017 Regular Session legislation effective through October 6, 2017, pending classification of undesignated material and text revision by the Oregon Reviser. Not all provisions of this pamphlet will apply to your Code, nor does this pamphlet purport to include all state laws that may somehow affect the language of your Code.

The provisions of this pamphlet are intended to assist city attorneys and are not intended to be a substitute for the advice of counsel.

It is not the intent of Municipal Code Corporation in publishing this pamphlet to provide legal advice. An attorney admitted to practice in Oregon must be consulted as to the applicability of a given statute or case to a particular situation.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Civil forfeitures.
 - a. O.R.S. ch. 131A is the sole and exclusive law of the state governing civil forfeiture of real and personal property based on prohibited conduct. Chapter 131A supersedes all charter provisions, ordinances, regulations and other enactments adopted by cities relating to civil forfeitures. See O.R.S. § 131A.010.
 - b. The provisions of O.R.S. § 809.730 preempt certain ordinances pertaining to seizure and forfeiture of a vehicle if the person operating the vehicle is arrested or issued a citation for driving while under the influence of intoxicants in violation of O.R.S. § 813.010. See O.R.S. § 809.735.

ADMINISTRATION

1. New fees or fee increases. The governing body of a city must provide an opportunity for interested persons to comment on the enactment of any ordinance or resolution prescribing a new fee or a fee increase, or an increase in the rate or other manner in which the amount of a fee is determined or calculated. Where a city exercises authority to assume the responsibility for a program delivered by the state, the city shall provide an opportunity to comment on the difference between the fee amount charged by the state for such service and the proposed local fee for the service. See O.R.S. § 294.160.

2. Refund anticipation notes. Cities may not restrict or limit O.R.S. §§ 674.605--673.740. See O.R.S. § 673.715.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

1. Local restrictions. Cities that adopt time, place and manner regulations of the nuisance aspects of establishments that serve alcoholic beverages must make specific findings that the establishments would cause adverse effects to occur. See O.R.S. § 471.164.

BUILDINGS AND BUILDING REGULATIONS

1. Radio antennas. Ordinances regulating placement or height of radio antennas are restricted. See O.R.S. § 221.295.

2. State building code. The state building code preempts local ordinances and applies statewide. Local ordinances providing different requirements must be authorized by the state. See O.R.S. § 455.040.

3. Carbon monoxide alarms. Regulation of the design, inspection, testing, maintenance, placement or location of carbon monoxide alarms is preempted to the state. See O.R.S. § 476.725.

4. Manufactured structures. Local regulation of manufactured structures is restricted. See O.R.S. § 446.200.

5. Disclosure of solid fuel burning devices to purchasers of property. The disclosure of solid fuel burning devices, as defined in O.R.S. § 468A.485, in connection with a written offer to purchase real property for which a seller's property disclosure statement is required under O.R.S. §§ 105.465 and 105.470 is preempted to the state. See O.R.S. § 105.463.

BUSINESSES
